PERFUME COMBINATION.

MOVEMENT BEGAN IN NEW-YORK, AND WILL AFFECT THE WHOLE COUNTRY.

Detroit, March 6 .- "The News" this afternoon, says:

The American Perfume Company, with a capital of $5,000,000, its a combination which will be effected in a few days by about fifteen of the largest perfume manufacturers and handiers of the United States. Headquarters will be established in New-York, whence the movement emanates, and there will be distributing centres in Detroit and Chicago.

The Detroit firms probably in the movement are the Michigan Drug Company, F. Stearns & Co. and the Seely Manufacturing Company. The following are some of the firms outside of Detroit which will likely join the combination: Colgate & Co., Richard Hudnut, Ladd & Coffin, Lasell, Dalley & Co. and Ricksecker & Co., of New-York; the Wright Company, the Woodruff Company and Adolph Spiehler & Co., of Rochester, N. Y.; A. Gorgens & Co., of Cincinnati; French, Cave & Co., of Philadelphia; T. P. Baldwin & Co., of Chicago: the Meyer Brothers Drug Company, of St. Louis, and Greenbaum & Co., of San Francisco.

PARITY OF GOLD AND SILVER

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE APPROVES THE BILL NOW IN CONGRESS.

Applause at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday greeted the reading of a report by John Harsen Rhondes, chairman of the were passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the members of this chamber are in favor of legislation embodied in a bill known as "a bill to maintain the legal tender silver deliar at parity with gold, and to increase the subsidiary silver coinage," which bill was introduced in the House of Representatives by the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures on January 13, 1992.

Resolved, That we are in accord with the majority report as presented by that committee and accompanying the bill, and heartily indorse the reasons given by them why the bill should be adopted, and we respectfully urse upon the members of the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled prompt and favorable action upon the same, believing that the commercial interests of the country require such action on their part.

Following are portions of the report read by Mr.

Following are portions of the report read by Mr.

Rhoades:

The rapid growth of the country in trade and population will enable it to absorb and keep in circulation a much larger per capita volume of silver coinage than now exists, while the enormous increase in our stock of gold, which will probably continue, will be adding an ample gold reserve to offset the issue of silver coinage.

But the vital essence of the bill in question is to make the legal tender silver dollars remaining outstanding exchangeable at all times into gold when presented in sums of 50 or multiples thereof. If the act of March 14, 1960, really means what it says, that the standard dollar of issue shall be the gold dollar, then every dollar issued other than gold should be exchangeable into gold; for the maintenance of parity, as the committee truly says, "is not only a moral obligation resting upon the nation, but it is one which the government cannot evade, for, whether exchangeable or not, they must be accepted by the Treasury for all government dues in lieu of gold."

For the government of no civilized nation can permanently enjoy the best of credit when it issues over $500,000,000 of currency for circulation based upon a metal not the standard unit of value, compels the people to accept such issues at their face value in gold, and refuses to commit itself to a pledge to pay gold for such issues when payment is demanded by the holder thereof. They may think their credit is of the best, but their own people will not so regard it when the strain is put upon the system, when gold is helig hoarded; when confidence grows weak and the system becomes a rose of sand.

Laman J. Gage, the former Secretary of the Treasury of the Treasury and the sand and the system becomes a rose of sand.

Lyman J. Gage, the former Secretary of the Treasury, was among the new members of the chamber elected yesterday. Other new members elected elected yesterday. Other new members elected were Peter A. B. Widener, Thomas Dolan and Effingham B. Morris, of Philadelphia; William H. Dunwoody, of Minneapolis; Hubert Cillis, Samuel Beetle, T. DeWitt Cuyler, William L. Elkins, Edward Griffith, Chariton T. Lewis, William A. Marble, Michael J. O'Brien, Adolphe Openhym, Percy R. Pyne, Leo Schlessinger, Henry Siegel, Charles Herbert Smith and Walter Ledyard Thompson. The chamber passed resolutions expressing regret for the recent deaths of Charles L. Tiffany and Frederick D. Tappen.

JURY AWARDS MRS. PHILBIN $50.

Company and the Century Express Company, as the value of dresses sent to her from this city to Sea bright, N. J., last summer, but which have never been received by her, was tried yesterday in the Tenth District Municipal Court, before Justice Francis J. Worcester and a jury.

Mrs. Philbin was represented by a lawyer from the office of her husband's firm, Philbin, Beekman & Menken; the United States Express Company by Francis B. Kimball, and the Century Express Company by Ralph D. Miller.

At the opening of the proceedings the case against the Century Express Company was withdrawn, because that company was the receiving company of the package and the United States Express was the delivering company, and it was the delivery that was not made.

The plaintiff's counsel put a dressmaker on the stand to testify as to the value of the dresses stand to testify as to the value of the dresses which were lost. They were a black spangled net dress, valued at $150; a white batiste waist, valued at $25, and a lawender batiste waist, valued at $25. Counsel for the United States Express Company said that his side would admit that delivery was not made. He called the agent of the Century Express Company who had received the package containing the dresses from Mrs. Philbin's messenger. He identified a receipt for the package. Mr. Kimbail called the attention of the court and the jury to a notation which showed that when the package was accepted the value of the goods was not given, and that the receipt specifically stated that where such value was not given the company was liable for only $20.

Mr. Kimbail asked the court to direct the jury to return a verdict for $50. Justice Worcester did $50, and the jury returned a verdict for that amount.

WEST SIDE REPUBLICANS MAKE MERRY.

JOLLY EVENING IN CELEBRATION OF THE CLUB'S

The West Side Republican Club, No. 2,307 Broadway, gave a dinner to celebrate its fourteenth anniversary last night at its clubrooms. It was the jolliest sort of an evening. The "Republican bulwark of the Upper West Side" had tired of formal speechmaking, and decided on something else for a change. The members passed the evening in the a change. The members passed the evening in the formal speech solutions and fellowship. A vaudeville prothey found more pleasure in cross table bantering, playing ping-pong with rolled up napkins and sing-ing national airs. Several of the members were decked with wreaths and collarettes of smilax. There were three long tables, and one shorter one for 150 men, each one of them as happy as his immediate neighbor. Richard T. Greene, third vice-president of the club, who presided, threatened to work for the ex-pulsion from the club of any speaker who talked pulsion from the club of any speaker who talked over five minutes. It was only because the sleight of hand performers, the professional singers and cancers unduly prolonged their preparations for their show that Supreme Court Justice John Proctor Clarke was permitted to speak for seven minutes. Justice Clarke, who was once president of the club, s.id that he "was glad of an opportunity to hang up his dignity and black gown in a closet and join such a crowd of good fellows." He regretted that his judicial position made it unfitting for him to talk about current politics. He congratulated the club for so well representing "vibrant, insistent, persistent and noble Republicanism."

Five other former presidents of the club spoke in a similar vein. They were ex-Judge C. N. Taintor, C. N. Bovee, jr., Frank Brainard, L. M. Stanton and J. Edgar Leaycraft.

This fact was brought to the attention of the postal authorities, and it was found that the greater portion of the losses came on the routes carried by Hanlon. Tues-day a test letter containing three marked one dollar day a test letter containing three marked one dollar bills was sent out on Hanlon's route and disappeared. A second was eent out yesterday with marked bills and when it failed to reach Father Rector, to whom it was directed, Hanlon was arrested. The carrier had the three bills sent out yesterday and one of the bills in Tuesday's letter. Hanlon confessed that for eight months he had been opening letters. He said he had been borrowing money from sharks and paying 5 per cent a month. He got in debt so badly that he took the money to get even! He was arraigned and held for trial.
